

September Prayer Calendar 2023

MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
				It's been a long week. Still, we are told to not get tired. Don't give up. Pray through! Scripture Reading: 2Thessalonians 3:13
Teach those you serve not to worry. Instead, focus on the important things in life. Scripture Reading: Luke 10:41-42	Do you have hard time loving those you serve? Remember the definition of love given in the Bible. Scripture Reading: 1 Corinthians 13:4-5	Teach those you serve to turn away from what the world says is important. Focus instead on God's will. Scripture Reading: Romans 12:2	No need to give up. God gives us strength to do what we need to do. Scripture Reading: Philippians 4:13	Difficult times and challenges lead us to blessings. Hold tight and don't ever give up. Scripture Reading: James 1:12
We who are strong are responsible for bearing the burdens of those who are weak. Scripture Reading: Romans 15:1-2	Remember your plans are tentative. Keep this in mind: Our preparation + God's providence = Success Scripture Reading: Isaiah 30:1	As we face difficult choices, our minds are not capable of guiding us correctly. Submit to God and be guided in the right way. Scripture Reading: Proverbs 3:5-6	Sometimes we are called to give a kind word. Who can you share a kind word with today? Scripture Reading: Proverbs 12:25	The best we can give those we serve is a sense of peace. We know that peace only comes through Jesus. Scripture Reading: John 16:33
Be patient, the answer is coming in God's timing. Scripture Reading: Hebrews 10:36	None of us want troubles. But, they make us stronger and more reliant on God's provisions. Scripture Reading: Romans 3:3,5	Even when times are tough, have faith. It only takes a little to move mountains. Scripture Reading: Matthew 17:20	Sometimes the troubles we face are given to us so the glory of God can shine through. Scripture Reading: 2 Corinthians 12:8-10	Even when the world seems dark, God's light is shining through. It will never be put out. Scripture Reading: John 1:5
God will remember the things you have done in His name. Look to Him for your rewards and recognition. Scripture Reading: Hebrews 6:10	Many people need to hear that God will help them. Sometimes, we are the vessel through which God helps. Scripture Reading: Isaiah 41:13	Worry, anxiety, stress- all need to be laid at the feet of Jesus. He goes before us, so we have no need to worry. Scripture Reading: 1 Peter 5:7	In far too many instances, anger rules the heart and head. But, we are told to manage our anger. Scripture Reading: Ecclesiastes 7:9	Relationships are hard. Sometimes, we get into foolish arguments. Work to be kind and loving. Scripture Reading: 2 Timothy 2:23-24
